About Me

I am an IT student that is currently attending college at Holy Angel University. I have knowledge in editing videos, photos, music, and website. I am also interested in Music, Online Gaming, and Fitness

My interest in capturing photographs using my camera just started out as a hobby. I began to work and enhance my skills and knowledge when I started working for Bevi8 Sports Clinic. After that, opportunities came in which made me who I am as a person today.

The screenshot shows the Visual Studio Code editor with three files open in the editor pane:

- dashboard.component.html: Contains an Angular component template with a table and a toggleText() method call.
- dashboard.component.ts: Contains the TypeScript class DashboardComponent with a toggleText() method and a staff array.
- dashboard.component.spec.ts: Contains the Jest test suite for the DashboardComponent.
